

A weekly offer, one for every day

Seven ideas to fill the quiet hours and give people a reason to choose The Acreage on a Tuesday. Nothing goes out until you have set the prices and said yes.

THE THINKING, IN THREE LINES

Busy days stay full price. Quiet hours get a reason.

Every offer below points at a window that is currently empty: Tuesday morning, midweek afternoons, Thursday before the weekend, and the hours after the kitchen closes. Saturday morning, which is already your best trade, is left alone.

Each one is a named plate at a set price, never a percentage off. A named offer builds a habit. A discount teaches people to wait for the next one.

THE WEEK

Set your price, tick yes or no.

The middle column is what we suggest, worked out from your own menu and catering prices. The last two columns are yours.

DAY	THE OFFER	WE SUGGEST	YOUR PRICE	RUN IT?
Monday	The Monday Boardroom Closed to the public, so this one is sold, not posted: a private space with breakfast and bottomless coffee for a company of ten to thirty, with no venue hire on a Monday.	R195 per head	-----	Yes / No
Tuesday	The Farmhouse Morning The Farmhouse Breakfast and a double-shot cappuccino. R140 if you order them separately.	R119	-----	Yes / No
Wednesday	Coffee and Cake Afternoon From 12:00. A large slice of whatever is in the cabinet and a double-shot coffee. Normally R122.	R99	-----	Yes / No

DAY	THE OFFER	WE SUGGEST	YOUR PRICE	RUN IT?
Thursday	Ribs and a Draught 500g pork ribs with chips and coleslaw, and a 500ml CBC draught. R220 apart.	R199	-----	Yes / No
Friday	The Sunset Table Booked and paid in advance: a welcome drink, a set two-course braai plate cooked outside, the fire pit lit and a guitarist. Sixty to eighty seats on the lawn. Your catering prices a braai at R280 to R330 a head.	R295 per head	-----	Yes / No
Saturday	Long Table Saturdays From 12:00 only, nothing before. The Sharing Platter and a bottle of house wine, for two to four people.	R449	-----	Yes / No
Sunday	Sunday on the Lawn Breakfast for four: two adult breakfasts, two from the kiddies menu, two coffees. About R390 apart.	R349	-----	Yes / No

If one of these does not suit the kitchen, say which and we will swap it. There are second options for every day, such as a cheaper Sunrise breakfast and coffee at R89 on a Tuesday, a coffee, toastie and WiFi deal for people working from a laptop on a Wednesday, or a free-entry Fire Pit Friday with a short bar menu instead of a ticketed sitting.

RUNNING ALL YEAR

Six small things, separate from the daily offers.

The second-visit card

Spend R200 or more on a weekend and leave with a card worth R50 off breakfast, valid Tuesday to Thursday for three weeks. It moves people from the days you are full to the days you are not, and it only costs anything when it works.

Yes / No, and the amounts

Gift vouchers

Bought online, any amount or a named breakfast, valid twelve months. Ready for Black Friday on 27 November and Christmas after it. Money in the account now for a visit later.

Yes / No, and who sets them up

Birthday month

A free slice of cake in your birthday month, on production of an ID. It costs a slice and birthdays almost never arrive alone.

Yes / No

Company accounts

Businesses within twenty minutes register once and get a standing weekday breakfast rate, plus the small function space free for meetings. No public discount, and it turns the corporate belt into midweek regulars.

Yes / No, and the rate

The fourteen-day date hold

Any function enquiry can hold their date free for fourteen days, with no deposit. Not a discount, and it gives people a reason to enquire today rather than think about it. This is also what we would offer at the Open Day.

Yes / No

School holidays

24 September to 5 October, and from 9 December. During holidays only: a free kiddies meal with every adult main before 11:00. It costs about R15 and it brings a family of four.

Yes / No

FOUR THINGS ONLY YOU CAN DECIDE

The decisions behind the prices.

- ☐ Friday evenings. Can the kitchen and the team work a Friday until about nine, even once a month? This is the biggest opportunity on the list, and the only one that needs real commitment.
- ☐ Mondays. Staying closed to the public, or opening during school holidays and public holidays?
- ☐ Which offers go on the board at the door and get mentioned at the table. An offer nobody says out loud does not work.
- ☐ How many we start with. Our recommendation is three, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, for four weeks, then add Friday.

THREE THINGS WE NEED

So we can tell you what worked.

- A daily and hourly sales report from the till for the last three months, and a button per offer so redemptions can be counted. Without it we are guessing about which hours are actually quiet.
- The real kitchen closing time, and whether the bar genuinely trades until 22:00. Your templates say 3pm and Facebook says 15:30.
- Whoever answers the WhatsApp to note the offer name against each booking. Thirty seconds a booking, and it is how we know which offer to keep.

After four weeks every offer gets a verdict: keep it, change the price, or drop it. We will bring the numbers, not opinions.
